

96 hours the personal shopper

COVET

Living is easy

Think the great Australian outdoors in a scene worthy of a Mambo T-shirt, writes Nicole Bittar.

1. Lolah outdoor armchair with Sunbrella canvas cushions by Kenneth Cobonpue, $3395; Hermon & Hermon.

Phone 9427 0599; hermonhermon.com.au

2. Electric portable barbecue, from $499; Black and Stone. blackandstone.com.au

3. Limited-edition Coco Mini Bar by Leonhard Pfeifer, $3200; Pierre Garroudi Gallery, London. pierregarroudi.com

GANGGAJANG put it best in their lackadaisical anthem to lethargy Sounds of Then (This Is Australia). An armchair at the beach: is there anything more laid-back? If price is an object, replace with grassy-green Vano in wicker from Ikea (ikea.com.au). Wind down and chill out in style with a Chanel-inspired bar fridge par excellence. And the Solig bag from Ikea is a cut-price alternative with looks to chill. Light up a culinary storm with the hottest technology in portable char-grilling and loll back in red-tinged Givenchy shades (GV657; rrp $570; (02) 9894 1000), just to raise the temperature a notch.

nbittar@theage.com.au

